Peruvian Discusses Mexican Politics: Braulio Hernandez Corrects Him.

Mexican politics almost caused from le at the Texas Grand theater Wedness
as within when Jobe Santos Chocano.
Peravian writer, delivered a lecture in Mexico. The lecture war in Spanish had the theater was well filled when he Peravian started his discussion of textican affairs.
The speaker is said to have criticised arrains and declared that the Constictionalist leader had never admitted to better advantage on the subject, he could come to the stage.

Hermander Sprake.

Braulio Hermander, who was secretary of the Maderista Junta here and who has taken a part in several of the reveluters, areas and amounted that, stilleduck be was a bitter enemy of Carranta and was opposed to him in fairness to the man, he wisled to say that he basis of Chorane's argument was room, since, in 1912 he had heard Carranta tell Rev. Henry Allen Topper that he revolution was a seeinl revolution.

This is said to have caused the spraker to say that "Nexico has not enough old to buy one word from my lips."

How about the 119,000 Villa gave on, "someone in the nallence shouted, this point a number of the audience, cludding several Mexican refugees who rere present with their families are aid to have loft the theater.

The speaker then continued with his incumion of the laws and reforms of excee, calouting Villa rad his efforts I land law reforms and other reforms the resubble.

Several of the police were present at Mexico, shoulding villa rod his closes at land law reforms and other reforms it has republic.

Several of the police were present at the lecture in uniform.

Carrancistas Together.

Those of the andisnes who favored larranca were Spoarently in one group, for, when the speaker began discussing the "first chief," all the hissing and shistling came from one section of the house, occupied by about 69 persons. The hissing and stamping became so loud their police, who had been requested earlier in the evening by Villindan to be pressed, were forced to restore ordered to leave the theater and many others left voluntarity.

The boy, who is the son of Salvador Laxas, drampeared from his home Tuesday morning after being sent to a store on an errand. A search extending over two days and nights, was made for tim and he was finally found in Jeares in a semi made condition.

The little boy was so budly frightened that he could bardly rell what had happened to him. He said a man had given him some caudy and then taken him to Juares. That was an much as he could tell when he was found.
